COVER: An F-15E Strike Eagle deploys countermeasure flares over Afghanistan. An array of avionics and electronics systems gives the F-15E the capability to fight at low altitude, day or night, and in all weather.

SECURITY ISSUES

Private Armies Threaten Polls

Philippine authorities in early January warned that more than 100 private armies controlled by local politicians could cause violence ahead of this year's national elections.

FOCUS

Light Battlefield UAVs: Taking the High Ground

Battlefield or tactical Unmanned Aerial Vehicles (UAV) were deployed originally by the Israelis to scout for enemy surface-to-air missiles sites so these systems could be easily targeted by its fighter-bomber squadron.

30

ASIAN DEFENCE JOURNAL is a controlled circulation publication whose objective is to enhance awareness of the latest developments in defence technology, military strategy and geopolitics. It is available to senior government officials, senior military staff officers, those involved in policy making, planning and procurement and defence industry personnel. It is also available to other qualified persons. Cheques and bank drafts should be made payable to SHP Media Sdn Bhd.

SPECIAL REPORT

The RSAF—Enhancing Effectiveness and Force Capabilities
Since its establishment in 1968, the Republic of Singapore Air Force has evolved into a highly modern, sophisticated and professional air force capable of effectively protecting the nation's airspace and sovereignty.

TOP BRASS INTERVIEW

Admiral Sir Trevor Soar, Commander-in-Chief Fleet, Royal Navy
Admiral Trevor Soar was in Langkawi, Malaysia, recently to attend a security conference and spoke to ADJ on various issues including piracy, maritime air patrol and the involvement of international naval forces in maintaining maritime security.

FOCUS

The Next Generation Trainers—Jet Power

With the latest technology, today's jet trainers have captured the world market with their multi-role capabilities. These trainers are no longer restricted to training duties but also in supporting the frontline fighters when the need arises.

Next Generation Air-to-Air Missiles—Faster, Longer Range and Deadlier

ADJ looks at some of next generation air-to-air missiles currently under development or already fielded with the latest fighters in service today.

CSAR Helicopters—Lifeline Under Fire

One of the most important assets to have in any combat SAR task force is a capable helicopter. ADJ looks at some of the helicopters marketed as being combat SAR capable.

PRODUCT PROFILE

The CAMCOPTER S-100 UAS, the Perfect Capability for Military and Civilian Applications

By combining state-of-the-art advanced technology and a proven VTOL UAV platform—the CAMCOPTER S-100—Schiebel created a highly efficient capability to keep our oceans safe.

➤ Buffett at Berkshire Hathaway's 2009 annual meeting

30 | Please Hold for Mr. Buffett

What's it like to have America's greatest investor as your shareholder? Warren Buffett's biographer talks to CEOs who laud his patience and ability to quickly grasp financial complexities. His advice, they say, is priceless. Just don't make a deal he doesn't like.

39 | Investing Secrets Of Google Alums

Roughly 50 ex-Googlers—multimillionaires all—have put their financial might behind 200 fledgling companies. Many of their investments are both risky and potentially very rewarding. Expect their bets, which so far include Twitter and Tesla Motors, to shape the next wave of innovation.

44 | CEOs Hiding Behind Their Hedges

A surprising number of CEOs and senior executives use hedging strategies that let them effectively offload shares in their companies without raising red flags. One analyst has discovered a strong correlation between executive hedges and bad news for shareholders.

WITH the bulk of its revenue currently derived from 'lumpy' short-term contracts, Kencana Petroleum aims to lengthen its income stream through activities such as drilling and vessel services. That also means venturing abroad, which it did in 2005. It now eyes the Asean, India, Australia and Timor-Leste markets, with the ultimate aim of becoming an international fabricator, engineering and engineering supports company. Kencana's recently launched tender-assisted drilling rig marks its successful move up the value chain.
