

ASEAN at 50: The way forward

(From left) Naronchai Akrasanee, Mari Pangestu, Finance secretary Carlos Dominguez, ambassadors Roberto “Bobby” Romulo and Jose “Joey” Cuisia, Jr. with Lito Camacho

The Carlos P. Romulo Foundation, in cooperation with the Association of Southeast Asian Nations-Institutes of Strategic and International Studies and Stratbase ADR Institute hosted a conference titled ASEAN at 50: The Way Forward at the Manila Polo Club in Makati City. Held on the eve of the ASEAN Foreign Ministerial Meeting, the event was organized by ambassador Roberto “Bobby” Romulo, former Foreign Affairs secretary Albert del Rosario and Centre for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS-Indonesia) senior fellow and co-founder Jusuf Wanandi. The conference invited 36 distinguished speakers and pundits from different ASEAN nations, with Finance secretary Carlos Dominguez and Foreign Affairs secretary Alan Peter Cayetano representing the Philippines. Here’s to fifty years of partnering for change and engaging the world!

BUSINESS CHIC

JOHNNY LITTON

Foreign Affairs secretary Alan Peter Cayetano (third from left) with former Foreign Affairs secretaries Albert Del Rosario, ambassadors Delia Albert and Bobby Romulo

Centre for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS-Indonesia) senior fellow and co-founder Jusuf Wanandi with MVP Group of Companies CEO and managing director Manny V. Pangilinan

▲ Gareth Evans with Australian ambassador Amanda Gorely

◀ Surin Pitsuwan, Gareth Evans and ambassador Rosario Manalo

▶ Carlos P. Romulo Foundation trustee ambassador Jesus Tambunting and lawyer Ricardo Romulo

(From left) Charles Morrison, Philippine Chamber of Commerce & Industry (PCCI) president George Barcelon, ambassador Rosario Manalo, Endy Bayuni and Prof. Dindo Manhit

▲ (From left) Lawyer Raphael Lotilla, Amy Searight, Todung Mulya Lubis, ambassador Pou Sothirak, Suchit Bunbongkarn and Shashi Jayakumar

Masahiro Kawai and CSIS-Indonesia’s Clara Joewono

Han Sung-Joo delivers the keynote speech for the first day

Djisman Simandjutak, Mely Caballero-Anthony, Mari Pangestu and Vinod Thomas

(From left) Tan Sri Rastam Mohd Isa, Hassan Wirajuda, Jusuf Wanandi, Aileen Baviera and Nguyen Vu Tung

Federico Macaranas