

Asia-Pacific Think-tank Summit
Grand Hyatt Taipei, Taiwan
14-15 October 2017

On 14-15 October 2017, Tan Sri Rastam Mohd Isa, Chairman and Chief Executive of ISIS Malaysia and Dato' Steven CM Wong, Deputy Chief Executive of ISIS Malaysia attended the inaugural Asia-Pacific Think-tank Summit, held at Grand Hyatt Taipei, Taiwan. The Summit brought together more than 30 think tank leaders from 15 countries to discuss the changing environment in the Asia Pacific and the role of think tanks in the matter. Participants conferred about the development and dynamics of the Asia-Pacific region, including politics, economics, security, and relations with China and the United States. Tan Sri Rastam delivered a Luncheon Speech on 14 October, while Dato' Steven Wong spoke at one of the panel discussions. The event was organised by the Institute for National Policy Research (INPR) in collaboration with the Taiwan Society of Japan Studies and the Center for Japanese Studies, National Sun Yat-sen University.
